Dear ACFLA/CCAC Chapter Members:

As your Chapter President, I would like to thank you for being a part of our dynamic agenda for 2005. We started with an interesting seminar/cooking demonstration from Chef Rudy Garcia (LAMC) with exotic seafood and more. We had an informative nutrition seminar from Dr. Eloise Cantrell for all of your recertification needs and the "Chef of the Year" competition was a great success. I am proud to announce the winner of the ACFLA "2005 Los Angeles Chef of the Year" culinary competition, Martin Gilligan, CEC, Chef Instructor at Riverside Community College. It was an awesome day with lots of passion and hard work to create masterpieces out of lobster!!! A big Chapter thank you to: Santa Monica Seafood, (www.smseafood.com); World Wide Produce, (213) 747-4411; Dr. Jerald W. Chesser, Ed.D, CEC, FMP, CCE Director of Cal Poly Pomona Collins School of Hospitality Management; Judges: Jill Bosich, CEC, CCE; Roland G. Henin, CMC; Mial Parker, CEC, CCE; ACF Western Region VP Harry Brockwell, CEC, AAC and a big thanks to this year's competitors, culinary students, friends and family. We deeply appreciate your support and enthusiasm! Check out the 2005 competition and more information on the events below at our web page visit www.acfla.org

Next up...

We have a Supervision Seminar in October and the end of the year bash - The Escoffier Dinner. I will host it at The Beach Club so be sure to be there!

I urge you to get involved and make a difference!

-Whitney Werner, CEC
